Description

This generous sized, South facing, Victorian house has been restored to a good standard with attractive fireplaces in almost all rooms. Stunning views to the South Downs from most rooms with a pretty garden & access to the field behind.

There are four bedrooms, three double & one small room. One with en suite & two with fitted wardrobes.

Large main bathroom with free standing bath & separate shower cubicle.

The lounge/dining room is a main feature, double aspect making it a very bright sunny room with superb views & two attractive Victorian fireplaces.

Kitchen is well fitted with, almost new appliances & electric oven.

Below stairs in a large double cellar, one with WC & sink which would make a perfect games room or store room.

Beyond the cellar is an undercover storage area originally built as coal/wood store opening to a paved, sun trap patio area with side gate to parking for two cars.

The garden is easy maintenance with a patio at the end looking directly on to the fields beyond with the views to the South Downs.

It also benefits from a garden room / home office which has good internet connections.

Parking for two is well off the road with turning space

Pets by negotiation.
